USE OF QLIKVIEW OR QLIKSENSE PLATFORMS BY POLICE FORCES

Thank you for your email on 6 November 2024 asking for 'information regarding any assessments or reports conducted by the National Audit Office on the cost efficiency and performance of the use of the QlikView or QlikSense platforms within the UK police forces.' Your request has been handled under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

We have searched our records and can confirm that we do not hold the information you requested as it does not fall within the scope of our audit work. We are not the statutory auditors of Police Forces and the work we have done concerning the Police in recent years (on financial sustainability and recruitment) has not covered any aspects of the information you requested. You may wish to contact the Police Digital Service and College of Policing as they may be able to assist you with your specific request.

I hope this information is helpful and you are happy with the way we have handled your request. Our policy is to respond to requests as helpfully and promptly as possible. If you are not happy with this response, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days by writing to the NAO FOI Team at FOI@nao.org.uk. If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The primary way of escalating your concerns to the Information Commissioner is at: <https://ico.org.uk/foicomplaints>.
